PRODUCT - RECALL

7 February 2022

The manufacturer Thai Agri recalls the following product for reasons of precautionary consumer protection:

AROY-D Coconut cream 400 ml

Item number: 8463 / 8466

EAN Code: 016229902506

affected best before date: 16.03.2024

Importer: Kreyenhop & Kluge GmbH & Co. KG

Analysis of the above-mentioned product revealed an increased residues of bisphenol-A (BPA) as well as of cyclo-di-BADGE (CdB). BPA is used, among others, as a protective coating of food cans and can be released out by fatty products. CdB is a reaction product of BPA. CdB is classified as mutagenic. There is no acute or chronic health risk, when the product is consumed normally. Due to precautionary consumer protection, the above batch of the product is being recalled from the market.

Other best before dates of the product are not affected by the recall.

Customers who have bought the affected product can of course return it to their local supermarket. Please contact for consumer queries our customer service via email address: info@kreyenhop.de.

We sincerely apologise for any inconvenience caused.
